

Please join us on June 4 for an interesting program on:

Conservation Options for Landowners

Want to:

- Save money?
- Save wildlife?
- Save open spaces?

Learn how to do it through saving land!

Presented by:

Charlie Wyman, Land Protection Specialist at Mass Audubon
and Attorney Bob Levite

Wednesday, June 4th, 7:00 pm

The Community Visiting Nurses Association
10 Emory Street, Attleboro, Massachusetts

The presentation will explore the many conservation options available to landowners interested in keeping their land open and undeveloped. Among the topics discussed will be gifts and sales of land, conservation restrictions, tax benefits of gifts and bargain sales, and property tax abatement programs.

All are welcome, and there is no fee for the program. Please call Oak Knoll Wildlife Sanctuary at 508- 223-3060 with any questions and to register.
